Local Barbers Treat Longfellow Students to Haircuts

Local barbers visited neighborhood school Longfellow Elementary to provide students with free haircuts. Barbers Chris Swinton, London Dameron, and Leroy Cheffen from Brooklyn Kutz were among those who volunteered their time. Swinton has been at his current location on 31st & Brooklyn for over 25 years and said he really enjoyed seeing how excited the students got and how their attitudes changed after getting the cuts they wanted. Dameron remembered being one of the kids who couldn't afford a haircut growing up and is happy now to be on the other side, giving back and helping the children in the community.

Tiffany Judon and Adrienne Hall from LaFlare Barber Salon also participated in the event. Hall has been a barber for 10 years and at her current location at 41st & Troost for the last three years. This was her first school event, and said what she liked most about it was helping kids in need whose families can't afford regular haircuts. "This [was] a great opportunity to show the community somebody cares," Hall shared. Longfellow parent Ebony Bell had this to say about their visit, "That really made a difference in their life. Now they walking different with they head held high. A small difference go a long way."

Dumpster Days

Hyde Park is participating in the Neighborhood Cleanup Program this year, and has organized 5 dumpster days. Our next Dumpster Day will May 25 from 8 a.m. - 12 p.m. or until the dumpsters are filled. On each date there will be two dumpsters, one for general waste, and one for leaf/brush. Members dump free, non-members can dump for $10.00 per load after 10:00 a.m., if space allows. This is a great opportunity to clean off sidewalks and gutters just in time for all the summer foot traffic in our wonderful, walkable neighborhood.
